

Clean Marina and Clean Boatyard Program

Announcing a Workshop

Pinellas County, the State of Florida, and the Clean Boating Partnership will be holding a free workshop for marina/boatyard management and staff, the public, and any other interested parties

Tuesday, July 14th 2009, 8:30 a.m. – 12 noon
At the Weedon Island Preserve
Cultural and Natural History Center Auditorium

Marinas interested in participating can contact Gene Quinn at 464-4797 or e-mail: gquinn@pinellascounty.org

Weedon Island is located north of St. Petersburg on Tampa Bay. The entrance of the Preserve can be found on the west side of the Gandy Bridge (SR 92). Turn south on San Martin Blvd. Travel approximately one mile and then east on Weedon Drive NE. Follow Weedon Drive until you see the Weedon Island Preserve Cultural and Natural History Center. If you find yourself treading water, you drove too far, turn around and go back!

TENTATIVE AGENDA

- 8:30-8:45 Sign-in and Introductions – Gene Quinn
- 8:45-9:15 Local environmental and historical background and the County's involvement in the program (Good Mate to Clean Marina Programs) – Gene Quinn
- 9:15-10:00 Outline of the Clean Marina/Boatyard/Retailer programs and their Action Plans – Judy Ashton and Rose Taylor
- 10:00-10:15 Break
- 10:15-10:45 NPDES – Jason Cohn
- 10:45-11:15 – “What we are Protecting” Randy Runnels
- 11:15-Noon – Questions and discussion.