Deepwater Horizon Websites

<https://dwhdiver.orr.noaa.gov>: website maintained by NOAA serving as a repository for data related to the DWH Trustees' NRDA efforts. These data are accessed through a query and mapping interface called DIVER (Data Integration Visualization Exploration and Reporting) Explorer and includes photographs, telemetry, field observations, instrument data, and results of laboratory analysis on tissue, sediment, oil, and water samples.

<http://www.gulfspillrestoration.noaa.gov/restoration/early-restoration/>: website maintained by NOAA with information on Early Restoration projects. Early Restoration refers to projects funded through restoration planning before the damage assessment was completed.

<http://www.gulfspillrestoration.noaa.gov/restoration-planning/gulf-plan>: website maintained by NOAA with the Programmatic Damage Assessment and Restoration Plan and Final Programmatic Environmental Impact Statement.

www.gulfspillrestoration.noaa.gov/restoration-areas/florida: website maintained by NOAA on behalf of the Florida TIG with information on the funding allocation and restoration projects overseen by the Florida TIG.

www.deepwaterhorizonflorida.com: website maintained by DEP with information on the state's NRDA and other Gulf restoration activities, including the state's project portal (where project ideas can be submitted) and maps of submitted and funded projects.

Other Web Resources

<http://www.dwhprojecttracker.org/>: the Gulf of Mexico Alliance's site for information on projects supported by DWH-related funds.
