

Bivens Arm Nature Park Trail

This trail offers an enjoyable natural retreat just minutes from Interstate 75. The trail meanders through uplands past numerous large live oaks, while the boardwalk and main pavilion border a small marsh. This is a great place for the highway traveler to take a break with nature.

Major Activities: Walking

Trail Length/Surface: Approximately 1 total mile; unpaved and boardwalk

Fee: None Counties: Alachua Nearby Cities: Gainesville

Notes: The park offers parking, restrooms, a picnic area, pavilion and overlook, and extensive interpretive signage.

Directions/Access: From Interstate 75 in Gainesville, take Exit 382. Head toward Gainesville (northeast) on SR 331. You will come to a fork in the highway approximately 2 miles after you exit the interstate. Stay left, following SR 329. Just after the fork, the park is on the left.
